Story of America Essay Contest

The goal of Operation Protect & Defend's Story of America Essay Contest is to encourage critical thinking, active discussion and thoughtful writing about what it means to be a "good citizen" in America today. Americans enjoy a broad range of Constitutional rights that persons living in many other countries do not. These rights include freedom of speech and religion, a right to a fair trial, a right to due process and equal protection, to name a few. Along with these rights, we believe, come certain responsibilities, including the responsibility of each new generation of Americans to maintain and protect those rights in light of the circumstances and challenges facing their lives, their communities and their nation.

Teachers working with Operation Protect & Defend have developed a curriculum related to the 14th Amendment to the Constitution and the Voting Rights Act of 1965. The curriculum identifies court cases interpreting the Act, and asks students to think about how United States' history relative to voting rights parallels with current events. This course of study includes selected readings provided by your teacher and court opinions. It also involves in-class discussion and in-class writing about questions raised by the readings.

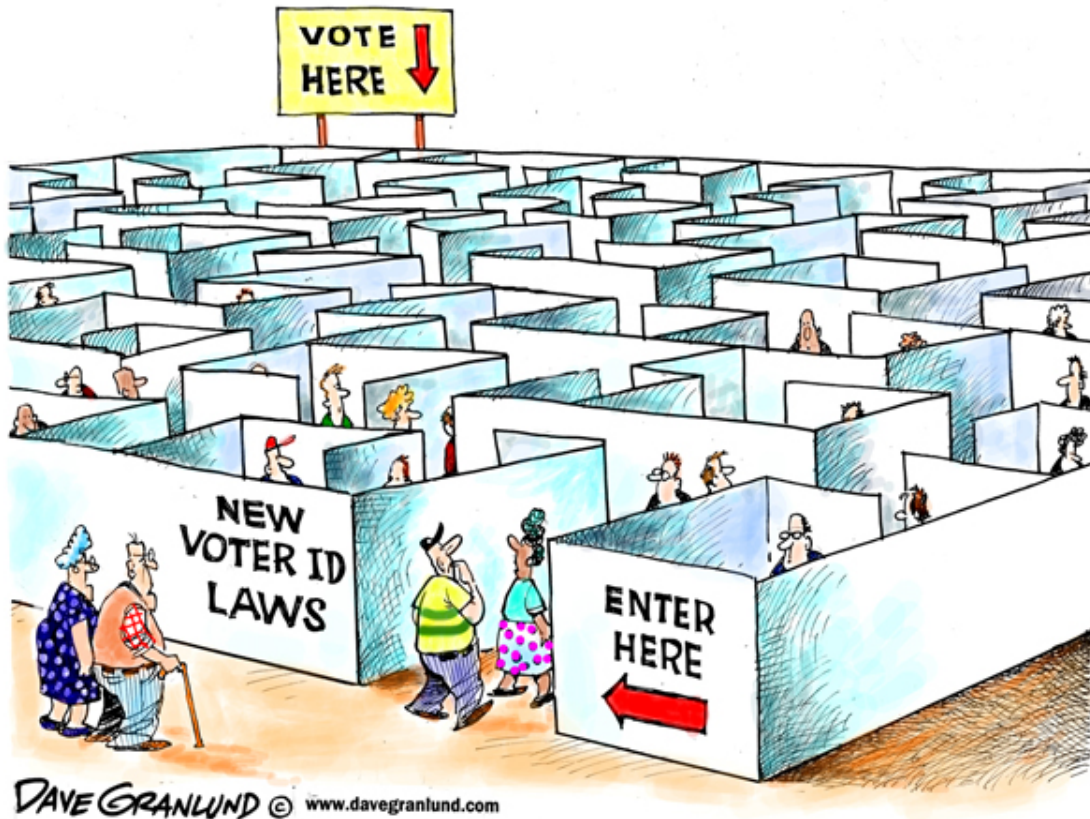

All 12th grade students in classes participating in the Operation Protect and Defend program are invited to enter this essay contest. Students will compete for the following cash awards:

Justice Robert K. Puglia Most Original & Inspirational Essay Awards	$1,000 each
Frank C. Damrell, Lawyers' Choice Awards	$1,000 each
Jean McEvoy Memorial Scholarship Award	$1,000
Bion M. Gregory Essay Recognition Awards	$500 each
Teacher's Choice Awards	$200 each

It is expected that the essays submitted for the competition will be based on the student's own research and understanding and will be their own original work. It is not permissible for someone else to rewrite, change, or add text to a student's essay. However, it is permissible for someone to note spelling, word usage, grammatical, punctuation, and formatting errors. Using the work of someone else – in whole or in part – is considered plagiarism and is not permitted. Students should be careful to identify and give credit to any portion of the submitted essay that comes from another source.

Notification of Winners and Award Dinner: Winners will be notified by the end of April 2020. An awards ceremony and dinner will be held on May 7, 2020 at the Golden 1 Center in Sacramento. Details on the dinner and ceremony will be distributed later.

STORY OF AMERICA ESSAY PROMPT

In 1866, in the wake of the Civil War, the U.S. Congress passed the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution to ensure the rights of freedmen (emancipated slaves) across the country. The 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, ratified in 1868, granted citizenship to all persons born or naturalized in the United States—including former slaves—and guaranteed all citizens “equal protection of the laws.” The 14th Amendment guaranteed the right to not be discriminated against based on race, a concern born of the knowledge that former Confederate States would look to disenfranchise African-Americans. Two years later, Congress found it necessary to supplement the 14th Amendment with the 15th Amendment, calling out the right to vote as a specifically protected right in all of the states.

Following decades of challenges to voter suppression methods passed by state governments, President Lyndon Johnson signed the Voting Rights Act of 1965. The law was sweeping in its impact, particularly through Sections 2, 4 and 5. Section 2 prohibited any kind of rules or procedures used to deny the right to vote based on race. Section 4 set criteria for which jurisdictions fell under the provision of the law, recognizing that not all jurisdictions discriminated against people of color regarding voting rights. Section 5 dictated that once a jurisdiction fit the established criteria under Section 4, the jurisdiction must receive permission from the federal government before it makes any changes to the voting requirements of the residents of that jurisdiction. In the last few years, the Supreme Court has been faced with new constitutional challenges to the rights of voters through the argued erosion of the Voting Rights Act via the impacts of redistricting.

The only way we can meet the 14th Amendment challenges currently facing California and the nation is with a citizenry that understands and participates in all aspects of civic life. How does the Voting Rights Act of 1965 apply to voting in America today and why is it important for young voters to actively participate in our democratic society?

Explain your answer using what you learned in the curriculum. In particular, please give consideration to the cases of Shelby County v. Holder, Veasey v. Abbott (“Veasey I”), and Luna v. County of Kern in your response. You may support your answer with personal experiences if appropriate.

Story of America Essay Contest: Rules and Instructions
