Story of America Essay Contest

The goal of Operation Protect & Defend's Story of America Essay Contest is to encourage critical thinking, active discussion and thoughtful writing about what it means to be a “good citizen” in America today. Americans enjoy a broad range of Constitutional rights that persons living in many other countries do not. These rights include freedom of speech and religion, a right to a fair trial, a right to due process and equal protection, to name a few. Along with these rights, we believe, come certain responsibilities, including the responsibility of each new generation of Americans to maintain and protect those rights in light of the circumstances and challenges facing their lives, their communities and their nation.

Teachers working with Operation Protect & Defend have developed a curriculum related to the due process rights owed to defendants during criminal trials. These rights include the right to the government proving guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, the right not to testify against yourself, and the right to an impartial jury represented by a cross section of the community. This course of study includes selected readings provided by your teacher and court opinions. It also involves in-class discussion and in-class writing about questions raised by the readings.

All 12th grade students in classes participating in the Operation Protect and Defend program are invited to enter this essay contest. Students will compete for the following cash awards:

Justice Robert K. Puglia Most Original & Inspirational Essay Awards	$1,000+ each
Frank C. Damrell, Lawyers' Choice Awards	$1,000 each
Jean McEvoy Memorial Scholarship Award	$1,000
Bion M. Gregory Essay Recognition Awards	$250 each
Teacher's Choice Awards	$200 each

It is expected that the essays submitted for the competition will be based on the student's own research and understanding and will be their own original work. It is not permissible for someone else to rewrite, change, or add text to a student's essay. However, it is permissible for someone to note spelling, word usage, grammatical, punctuation, and formatting errors. Using the work of someone else – in whole or in part – is considered plagiarism and is not permitted. Students should be careful to identify and give credit to any portion of the submitted essay that comes from another source.

Notification of Winners and Award Dinner: Winners will be notified by the end of April 2025. An awards ceremony will be held on May 1, 2025, with details distributed later so please stay tuned.

STORY OF AMERICA 2025 ESSAY PROMPT

One of the cornerstones of the American justice system is the right to a jury trial for those accused of committing a crime. For these trials, California's citizens are called to jury duty and are tasked to serve their community as jurors in a fair, honorable and impartial manner. Although many people have seen parts of a criminal trial on television, there are a lot of misunderstandings about the actual constitutional underpinnings of our jury trial system. Based upon what you have learned through the Dialogue on America curriculum and your classroom discussions, please answer the following question:

If you were in charge of selecting a jury that involved parties (the alleged victim and the charged defendant) of different races and different experiences, how would you ensure that the trial and jury selection were fair and free of bias and discrimination?

Story of America Essay Contest: Rules and Instructions

1. The Story of America Essay Contest is open to all eligible 12th grade students enrolled in participating social science/government/economics/legal classes within the Sacramento City Unified School District, Twin Rivers Unified School District, San Juan Unified School District, Natomas Unified School District, Elk Grove Unified School District, Folsom Cordova Unified School District and the Sacramento County Office of Education.
